Tactical Hemorrhage Control Trainer

The Tactical Hemorrhage Control Trainer is a full-sized, remotely-activated simulator designed for point-of-injury, tactical medicine training for law enforcement and first responders. Ultra-realistic and fully mobile, it is ideally suited for training rapid assessment and treatment of trauma injuries associated with active shooter, disaster and terrorist incidents.
Tactical Hemorrhage Control Trainer

Full-body Mannequin
- Anatomically-accurate soft tissue
- Ruggedized and water-resistant
- Remotely-activated bleeding
- Multiple injuries involving gunshot wounds, stab wounds and crushing injuries

Rapid Assessment
- Airway Management
- Oral and nasal
- Bleeding

Airway Management
- Oropharyngeal and Nasopharyngeal airway
- Needle decompression (mid-clav/mid-ax)
- Chest Seal

Hemorrhage Control
- Gunshot wound to the chest with exit wound
- Junctional and standard tourniquet application
- Wound packing

Technical Specifications:
- Full-body wireless male manikin
- Water resistant
- 76”H x 28”W x 12”D (192cm x 70 x 30);
- 185lbs (82Kg) (Simulator weights can vary +/- 5%)
- Fully-articulated limbs
- Rugged Carry Case
- One Gal. concentrated antimicrobial, antifungal, antifreeze simulated blood

Optional Items
- Part Number 510024: Simulated Blood
- Part Number 500168: Additional Battery Pack

Contact your Operative Experience representative for more information about all our training products.